ISSAH HASSAN TIKUMAH: AFRICAN LITERATURE IN THE MAKING: FROM PRE

Written by scholars of English, music, women's studies, American studies, cultural theory, and black and Africana studies, the essays in this interdisciplinary collection ultimately explore the thematic, linguistic structural presence of music in twentieth-century African American fiction. A special page is devoted to African-American literature because of its unique historical position in the development of African literature. Below are the two editions I have from volume two.
