The main character is Eugène Rougon b.

Son Excellence, Eugène Rougon by Émile Zola

At the center of all this conflict is Clorinde.

Son Excellence Eugène Rougon — Wikipédia

In conflict with the Emperor over an inheritance claim involving a relative of the , Rougon resigns from his position as premier of the Corps législatif before he can be dismissed.

De Marsy

Eventually, Rougon is involved in several great scandals based on the favors he has shown to his inner circle. Rougon himself is styled as the old man of the pack who sits back and waits for the others to take down the kill before he dives in to rend the better part of the flesh. Une clameur croissante monte contre Rougon, la débandade de ses amis est générale.
