Justice for Job Seekers

When we decide what should be a local law and what should be a national one, one of the most important things we must have regard to is whether people coming into the area can reasonably know what is criminal and what is not within that county. At the heart of the strategy are the new steps we will be taking to ensure that every local crime and disorder reduction partnership and police force is performing to its maximum potential.

Bill tightens compliance measures for job seekers

These changes are part of a package announced in the 2017—18 Budget. There is a requirement to keep a record of purchases and addresses, and of the sale of an article worth over £100.
