Worse enough, the Germans demanded from the Africans high interest, that they were unable to pay and found themselves in debt trap. Antonelli was fluent in Amharic and given that Menelik only signed the Amharic text he could not have been unaware that the Amharic version of Article XVII only stated that the King of Italy places the services of his diplomats at the disposal of the Emperor of Ethiopia to represent him abroad if he so wished.

German East Africa #35 (1911)

The First World War interrupted these efforts. African Chiefs also collaborated with the colonizer because they hoped that colonialists would include them in their colonial governments.

TOPIC 1: ESTABLISHMENT OF COLONIALISM

Do you see any significant variations in those attitudes, and if so, why do you think they exist? However, a theory that Britain sought to annex East Africa during the 1880 onwards, out of geo-strategic concerns connected to Egypt especially the Suez Canal, has been challenged by historians such as 1997 and Jonas F. The Nama joined the war in October in the same year.
