He was in action at Messines, but at Guillemont during the Somme offensive, received a second wound which necessitated his evacuation to England. Two years ago, the Perrin Industry Factory, 1100 employees, automotive supplier well known, affiliate to the German group Schäfer, signed an agreement asking to senior-managers and workers to accept a pay cut, in order to save the company in exchange of the promise to protect their jobs on at least the next five years. He and his wife, Bertrande's mother, pressured Bertrande to support the charge, to which she eventually agreed.
