Then as I raised me from my seat, Both gods and men in unison Sweet flowers of heaven and flowers of earth Profusely sprinkled on my head.

Henry Clarke Warren (Warren, Henry Clarke, 1854

Himalaya and Himavant are Sanskrit words of almost identical signification. Therefore trees in the midst are a second defect. You can make it yourself; this is a second.

Henry Clarke Warren (Warren, Henry Clarke, 1854

In the second part he would enter the perfumed chamber, and would lie down mindful and conscious, and on his right side after the manner of a lion. Then, when his Struggle fierce is over, His stern austerities performed, 78. And The Blessed One in answering their questions would complete the middle watch of the night.

Thereupon The Blessed One entered the first trance ; and rising from the first trance, he entered the second trance ; and rising from the second trance, he entered the third trance ; and rising from the third trance, he entered the fourth trance ; and rising from the fourth trance, he entered the realm of the infinity of space ; and rising from the realm of the infinity of space, he entered the realm of the infinity of consciousness ; and rising from the realm of the infinity of consciousness, he entered the realm of nothingness ; and rising from the realm of nothingness, he entered the realm of neither perception nor yet non-perception ; and rising from the realm of neither perception nor yet non-perception, he arrived at the cessation of perception and sensation. Richard Morris of Harold Wood, Essex ; the third to Henry Rigg, Esq. Rain down, god, if thou wilt! Warren continued with the editing of Visuddhimagga Published posthumously after revision by Dhammānanda Kosambi as HOS Vols.

Warren, Buddhism in Translations

Within the chamber was burning a lamp fed with sweet- smelling oil, and the mother of Rahula lay sleeping on a couch strewn deep with jasmine and other flowers, her hand resting on the head of her son.
