What does Fuchi mean?

Fuchi and Kashira design have two main features: the shape and the engraved design. He feels as though he, too, should be dragged into these 'labyrinths' in the search for his long lost friend. There are a number of different methods for wrapping and tying the sageo on the for display purposes.

Nemuri no Fuchi (Title)

This simply adapts to the result of the forging process made on the blade.

The sword blade was placed in a cane-like mounting tsue as concealment. Starting around then, instances of 'labyrinths' started spawning in random places, which led to an increasing amount of missing people.

The Fuchi

The metal parts are made by Goto Ichijo. A gap any more pronounced than in the picture above suggests that the forge simply took the nearest available wooden handle and quickly fitted it to the components rather than using a more suitable tsuka core. Manga-TR, bu çalışmalar üzerinden ticari bir kaygı gütmmez.

Sandanme: Dangyo no Fuchi

Arata Fuchi - Japan Arata Fuchi takes inspiration for his jewellery making from the Japanese sense of beauty, that is to say the beauty of form that is created by nature, as opposed to artificial beauty, from organic life, versus inorganic. From DrCoke at MangaHelpers: Eight years ago, a girl went missing while playing hide-and-seek in the forest.
