Royal Society of British Artists

The were announced at the beginning of lockdown, and you can view them, along with videos and statements from the winners. Humphrey Roberts, who originally owned this watercolour, was among Hunt's most loyal patrons during the artist's lifetime.

Exhibitions

Throughout the year's exhibitions have also been held in London Galleries, Building Societies, Banks and in Company offices.

Royal Society of British Artists

London, The Fine Art Society, Exhibition of Pictures and Drawings by Alfred W. This exhibition is usually held towards the end of the year.

Royal Institute of Painters in Water Colours 208th Exhibition

London, Royal Academy, Exhibition of Works by British Artists deceased since 1850, Winter 1901. In the foreground is the Castel dell'Ovo, an Angevin castle which acquired its name probably because of its vaguely ovoid shape. This view is from Mergellina at the foot of the Posillipo hillside, looking towards Vesuvius, one of the few volcanoes in Europe that are still active.
