A big group of us headed to a really cute place with big wooden tables and cute cactuses everywhere! My friend and I decided to do some shopping on the way back our residence is dangerously close to one of the main shopping strips, dangerous for my wallet. . . And of course we had to stop at the grocery store for 2 euro wine! Apparently it is a popular place to picnic with wine and cheese. The café was beautiful inside; we felt underdressed because it was so fancy! For dinner, we rounded up a big group of people and went to Zwölf Apostelkeller Twelve Apostles , an underground pub which has been around since the 1300s.

We were set on running to the Schobrunn Palace, which is apparently hard to miss if you turn right on our street and keep running. There were some charming buildings painted in pastels, and as in every European city, a beautiful cathedral.

Ich liebe Wien!

After the museum, we went for lunch near the city centre. Download ebook Liebe in Wien: Eine amouröse Porträtgalerie PDF by.

Paradise: Love (2012)

Turns out a group of us had been over eager and already done the exact same walk on weekend, but it was cool this time to actually learn some facts about all the different monuments.
