Il ritorno d'Ulisse in patria

Ulisse goes to seek out his loyal servant Eumete, while Minerva departs to search for Telemaco, Ulisse's son who will help his father reclaim the kingdom. Francica, Grassi and keyboardist Stefano Piemarioli--without bassist Manlio Zacchia--recruited additional players Roberto Gardin on guitar, Gianni Colaiacono on bass, Massimo Balla on sax and Mandrake playing percussion and continued a while longer using the band name in a more jazz orientated direction.

With Luciano Regoli's gentle voice being a particular highlight, the album is also worth listening to for the skillful keyboard stylings of Stefano Piemarioli. Orchestral arrangement at the end attempts to put a bit of gravitas into the mix, with middling success.
