Russia: Timeline

In 1954 the secret police was reorganized and renamed the KGB Committee of State Security. The Soviet leaders did not want individual, capitalist farmers to become rich and threaten their economic system. He wins reelection in 1996, but resigns in 1999, naming former KGB agent, his prime minister, as acting president.

USSR: Capitalist or Socialist?

The drive toward a nation-state has fueled nationalism and conflict in the Balkans. When the 13th Party Congress met in May 1924, had died and Trotsky had been defeated.

Former Soviet Union (USSR) Countries

They managed to win over Malenkov, and Beria was arrested in late June 1953. Nor did they want thousands of small, inefficient farms when the country was perpetually unable to feed itself. In October 1919 his Volunteer Army, augmented by conscripts, reached Oryol Orel, 150 miles 250 kilometres south of Moscow.

3.2 The USSR and the Russian Federation

The state also demanded a high percentage of the crops produced. As the economic and political situation began to deteriorate, Gorbachev concentrated his energies on increasing his authority that is to say, his ability to make decisions.

What Was The Soviet Union?

There is considerable evidence that if his health had allowed it he would have carried out major reforms in the political and economic structure of the Soviet state. In 1940 the Karelo-Finnish, Moldavian, Estonian, Latvian, and Lithuanian S.
