Busting the Historical Myths

After his repulse at Limerick, William withdrew his forces east of the Shannon, though the Williamites did successfully besiege and take the ports of Cork and Kinsale on the south coast.

Siege of Derry

The Laggan Army now went about creating entrenchments and siege lines which were soon snaking around the walls of the town. He therefore asked Tyrconnell to send him reliable Irish troops.

Adam Murray (soldier)

This was seen as a sound operational centre, with a good strategic location, and the new military establishment, under Edward Randolph, included a hospital.

The Siege of Derry

Their only real motivation was in a prompt end to the war in Ireland and to its use as a military base by James and the French.
