When he became Fuhrer, however, he raised his sights and saw himself as a political Pope with an apostolic succession. Hitler was accused of high treason against the state. An awareness of his deficiency could only have intensified a self-hatred virtually identical with masochism, and this, Waite asserts, found expression through coprophilia, a perverted sexual involvement with defecation and urination.

In: Journal of Psychohistory, Volume 20, 1993, P. Even more concerning is the warning issued by some authors that pathologizing Hitler would inevitably mean discharging him of at least some responsibility for his actions. More important to this conclusion is a different kind of historic fact: he displayed other behavior patterns thoroughly consistent with this kind of perversion, which is quite well reported in the literature.

She wrote that Hitler's hate-ridden and destructive personality, that later made millions of people suffer, emerged under the humiliating and degrading treatment and the beating that he received from his father as a child. And smaller children were taught to use this grace before meals: Fuhrer, my Fuhrer, sent to me from God, protect and maintain me throughout my life. The Hitler boom continues unabated, but the man remains as elusive a subject for revisionists and psychohistorians as ever he was to more conventional biographers.

Hitler also provided the holy scriptures for his new religion and Mein Kampf, instead of the Bible, took the place of honor in the homes of thousands of German families. Christ had changed the dating of history; so would Hitler, for his final victory over the Jews would mark the beginning of a new age in the history of the world. Jesus and Hitler were persecuted, but while Jesus was crucified Hitler was raised to the Chancellorship.
