to waive in-person arraignment or any other appearance requirement. Discretionary power is the ability to act or make decisions according to one's own judgment.

Prosecutorial Discretion

If one or more of the offenses carries a mandatory minimum term of imprisonment, that prospect becomes a guarantee. At least in theory, in some circumstances, they ought to care only about the arrest and pre-arrangement detention. The question remains: is the criminal justice system effective at catching, prosecuting, convicting, and punishing offenders? City of Jacksonville, 405 U.
