Borehole records

This era saw an increase in migration and colonialism. Providing access to this information gives home hunters and the property curious the resources they need to make better-informed property decisions. Note that the older deeds may be formatted differently.

Land Records

Try also for the Hearth Tax. Filing a notice of intent does not represent approval or permission to use water from a well.

British Army operations after 1945

About the author Else Churchill has been the Genealogy Officer of the Society of Genealogist since 1998. Plans to extend it to Surrey in 1940 were abandoned due to the. There are many competing uses of water; parts of the state may not have enough water available for new wells or may be closed to future withdrawals.

Home

Formerly the Librarian of the Institute of Heraldic and Genealogical Studies, Else has worked for the SOG since 1994.

Using the History Search

Traditionally customers send applications to the office that deals with applications for the geographical area where the property is located, but since 2009 many customers now deal with dedicated customer teams, who deal with all their applications from certain customers regardless of where the property is located. They were often built on the urban outskirts and with, large front and back garden spaces, make excellent family homes. A report by Sir on the system of land registration used in Germany proved influential.
