The discovery of evidence of the most secret rites of Freemasonry in an ancient tomb by authors Christopher Knight and Robert Lomas. An extraordinary investigation of 4,000 years of history. This astonishing bestseller raises questions that have challenged some of Western civilization's most cherished beliefs. Were scrolls bearing the secret teachings of Jesus buried beneath Herod's Temple shortly before the destruction of Jerusalem by the Romans? Did the Knights Templar, the forerunners of modern Freemasonry, excavate these scrolls in the twelfth century? And were these scrolls subsequently buried underneath a reconstruction of Herod's Temple, Rosslyn Chapel in Scotland - where they are now awaiting excavation? The authors' discoveries shed a new light on Masonic ceremony and overturn our understanding of history.

5 of History's Most Mysterious Secret Societies

The authors present no factual evidence for their claims and the Masonic researcher will wonder their charge is not in response to the cool reception their earlier work received from official Freemasonry. This type of image requires only a brief exposure to the subject a few hours and then develops on the surface of the cloth over tens of years by a process well known to science, called auto-oxidation, provided it is kept away from light but well ventilated.

The Blood of the Gods 3. For example, The Larmenius Charter, turned up in 1838 or thereabout, was allegedly a list of Templar Grandmasters since Jacque DeMolay, which the authors accept as factual has long been shown to be a forgery. However, if somehow they did get something that they thought was the sydoine there is no way they would have kept it a secret.

Contemporary images of him show he looked exactly like the man on the shroud.

Could the Turin Shroud be the face of a Knight Templar grand master?

Its name is the NEW NAME you received in the temple this day The 'New Name' is usually Biblical, and is the same for everyone on a given day, i. It all has to do with the coincidence that the Templar Visitor of Normandy, Geoffrey of Charney, who was burned at the stake just after Jacques de Molay, has the same name as the first owner of the shroud.
