List of works by Walter Carroll

It is however his music for children, written originally for his daughters Elsa and Ida, which is Carroll's claim to enduring fame. In October 1892, Carroll was appointed Singing Master in both departments of the Manchester Day Training College and Organist and Choirmaster at St.

In Southern Seas (Carroll, Walter)

The Sonata itself, very much of its period, is in four movements, conventional enough, though bearing a slight influence from Sterndale Bennett, and, as the music develops, of Schubert especially in the Menuetto third movement. After the death of the founding Principal in 1956 Ida Carroll was appointed Acting Principal, becoming Principal in 1958. In 1900 he became the first student to gain by examination, the degree of Mus.
