The Problem With Canada's Unsustainable Health System

This past summer Ottawa experienced increases in individuals diagnosed with COVID-19 following long-weekends, which tells us that higher levels of transmission occurred during long-weekends. There are many other influencers of performance that are not based on pay, such as commitment, work ethic, and motivation.

Novel Coronavirus (COVID)

February 2, 2021 — Special statement from Dr.

The Lasting Impacts Of COVID

Even as authorities beseeched Canadians to practise social distancing, some continued to gather for parties, to hit the beaches and their neighbourhood malls. The relentless flow of new information hasn't slowed in seven months.

Is Canada's health care system as great as we believe it to be?

We live in a beautiful winter city. At a certain point you just get inundated with COVID, COVID, COVID, all the time.
