Path to Adventure was so much fun and afforded us the opportunity to enjoy the Lakes from another view. Unjustifiable Risk is the story of the social, economic and cultural conditions that gave rise to the sport, and the achievements and motives of the scientists and poets, parsons and anarchists, villains and judges, ascetics and drunks that have shaped its development over the past two hundred years.

Scrambles in the Lake District

Mobile Adventure Tel : 01697 509016 Ghill scrambling is a unique experience guaranteed to bring a smile to your face! There are plenty of good quality photographs to get you excited and the star system will ensure you have a good time. Scrambling Grades Scrambles range in grade generally from 1 to 3 with 1 being the easiest and 3 being the hardest. There are some very easy routes across the Main Range, following good, wide paths, but the fact is that the central part from the Klukhor to Mamionsky passes cannot offer such a boon.

Once out on top you can make your way over the pinnacles which make an awesome photo and are really airy! John loves exploring and has sought to visit every potential crag in the area to find new routes. Both bouldering and scrambling require a good level of fitness and some skill, therefore if you are a complete novice, you may wish to consider using an activity company to guide you on a route.
