My Son Needed the Love of the Church. I Wasn't Sure It Was Possible.

As religious organizations gain competence in and commitment to basic issues of accessibility, it is time now for the discourse of disability studies to challenge these sites to a deeper level of accessibility, an accessibility that goes far beyond ramps. Foster an environment in community that responds to the changing needs of our members, while being faithful to the core values of our founding story.

Why Killing Isn't Compassion: Lessons from L'Arche

That night when I felt old and slow in comparison to the others, I stopped at that fountain. During worship he walks to the center of the church, the cathedral at Aberdeen, takes off his socks and shoes, sits rocking back and forth, swinging something repetitively in his hand and gutturally vocalizing, all the while sitting at the feet of the priest. Engage in our diverse cultures, working together toward a more human society.

Vatican events to focus on living fully with disability

Such models help explain to churches why they must attend to issues of justice, sending clear and unequivocal messages about the intrinsic value of people with disabilities. That, and the dropping of the atom bombs, strengthened a feeling in me that the navy was no longer the place for me, that I wanted to devote myself to works of peace.

About L'Arche Cape Breton

This was no easy task. If you know these things, blessed are you if you do them. I would qualify that, however, by saying that God wants us to feel joy John 15:11.

L'Arche USA in Action

Gleeson's critique is on-point but I disagree that this should be a reason for jettisoning Goffman entirely. This was one of many contributions that Adrienne made to us as a scholar, colleague, and activist.

Sample Case Scenarios « Challenging Patient Curriculum for Family Medicine Residents

They have experienced physical suffering and social isolation. For many this passage is familiar, but when was the last time we allowed ourselves to be confronted by its call? It is interesting that people with intellectual disabilities were not on the list of those debarred from priestly office.

Forum Introduction: Reflections on the Fiftieth Anniversary of Erving Goffman's Stigma

The book's effect on me is something like witnessing roadkill: the shock of seeing a thing familiar and unremarkable splayed open in a disarray, exposing a reeking but somehow affirming truth about life. In so doing, He identifies with all those for whom weakness is a way of life but not a choice: While he was still speaking, Judas came, one of the twelve, and with him a great crowd with swords and clubs, from the chief priests and the elders of the people.
