Jessie Weston

In the legend of Vortigern pronounced VOR-tuh-gurn , a legendary king of Britain, the king was trying to build a temple on Salisbury Plain, but it kept falling down.

Beyond the Wardrobe: C.S. Lewis as Closet Arthurian on JSTOR

For Arthur, Guinevere's affair with the knight Lancelot causes the unity of Camelot to crumble. Also, for the entire period after Malory only English-language writers are discussed. As he did so, a hand rose from beneath the water, the hand of the , and caught the sword.

Arthurian legend

The earlier pre-Malory writers are drawn from many linguistic traditions: Latin Gildas, Nennius, Geoffrey of Monmouth , French Wace, Chretien de Troyes, Jehan Froissart , English Layamon, the Gawain-poet, Geoffrey Chaucer , German Hartmann von Aue, Wolfram von Eschenbach , and Italian Giovanni Boccaccio. In Boron's account, Merlin is the product of a demon's mating with a young girl. Prose romances of the 13th century explored these major themes further.

Round Table

The young Merlin told the king of a vision in which he had seen a red dragon and a white dragon fighting in a pool under the temple's foundation. Regardless, Geoffrey died in 1154 in Llandaff, in South Wales.

James Baldwin

Another theme found in the tales of Merlin and Arthur is the dangerous power of passion. The magician then built the temple himself, using his magic to bring standing stones from Ireland and arrange them on the plain in a single night. Several versions of his legend have been created, including the 1963 Disney animated version The Sword in the Stone based on T.
