

Exploring the effect of non-financial indicators on return on investment in multinational companies.

-- Journal of Accounting and Taxation

Description: -

-Exploring the effect of non-financial indicators on return on investment in multinational companies.

-

Actas / Universidad de Granada

International journal of accounting -- v.27, no.2Exploring the effect of non-financial indicators on return on investment in multinational companies.

Notes: Taken from International journal of accounting, vol.27, no.2, 1992, pp.123-136.

This edition was published in 1992

Filesize: 10.95 MB

Tags: #Factors #Influencing #Foreign #Investment #Decisions

Journal of Accounting and Taxation

The pragmatic approach work on adaptation of way of thinking that moves back and forward between induction and deduction. The objective of the study was to explain and find the relationship between capital structure and financial performance of the non-financial firm listed in Nigerian stock exchange.

Journal of Accounting and Taxation

However, consistent with Pollock et al.

At a Cost: The Real Effects of Transfer Pricing Regulations

Internally, our country faces with the slowdown of economic growth, the adjustment of economic structure, industrial upgrading, medium income trap and the disappearance of the demographic dividend and so on. Six interviews were conducted in person, while the others were carried out over the telephone. Analysis of the dynamics of share capital formed by direct investment in the capital of Ukrainian enterprises Fig.

Factors Influencing Foreign Investment Decisions

The overall pattern of the dots show that it is from diagonal down ward straight regression line showing negative association between the two variables and the points fit the line not pretty well and there are very values dispersed far from the regression line so it seems that there is negative relationship between short term liability and return on equity.

How Do Companies Respond to Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) ratings? Evidence from Italy

P-values for testing the difference in mean are also reported.

Factors Influencing Foreign Investment Decisions

In common with similar forms of externally imposed organisational evaluations e. The capital structure in balance sheet always found on the right side which engages short term or long term liabilities of an organization in the given period of time.

Financial derivatives use and multifaceted exposures: Evidence from East Asian non

Additionally, with just under half of the firms deriving from the utility sector, our sample is not representative of the overall population of rated companies.

Related Books

- Demografia, ética e Igreja
- Artists register - artists, printmakers and sculptors in Kent, East Sussex and Surrey areas.
- Meteorology and World War II
- Old master drawings and prints.
- Civic design in Denmark.