66 Photos From The 1960s, The Decade That Rocked The World

It was very difficult for anyone in show business to avoid becoming involved in drugs in some way and as easily influenced young people looking for fun, many were encouraged to follow their idols and take hallucinogenic drugs.

What East London looked like in the 1960s

Duffy shot iconic photographs of famous models and personalities like Grace Coddington, Jane Birkin, Mick Jagger and Michael Caine.

Carnaby Street, miniskirts and topless models

Thanks to shops like Lady Jane, Lord John, and The Mod Male, Carnaby was constantly packed with young people trying to pull off their best Pattie Boyd and Penelope Tree looks. The 1960s were when London emerged as the epicentre of fashion, art and music. We were able to set up a production scene as we temporarily blocked traffic from passing through Water Street.
