Mishnah Bava Kamma 7

The Mishna states only cases of those which are considered vicious from the very beginning and must pay the full amount of damage, as tooth and foot, etc.

Masechet Bava Kamma 82a

If it is according to R. Elazar: An appraisement is made for a thief and a robber.

The Mishnah: A NEW INTEGRATED TRANSLATION AND COMMENTARY Based on Rabbeinu Ovadiah M'Bartenurah

Such is the dictum of R. If he was blinded, he would receive the value of his eye as nezek and would be paid shevet on working a hand mill.

Mishnah Bava Kamma 7

Why is it not mentioned expressly? Nay, damage by the foot is of frequent occurrence because whenever the animal walks and there is something in the way it damages it , which is not the case with the above. גַּבְבָּה וְמִכְרָה בְּשֶׁקֶת, גַּבְבָּה וְמִכְרָה לְעֵבֶד זָהָר, גַּבְבָּה וְטַבָּח בְּיֹום הַכְּפֹרִים, גַּבְבָּה מִשְׁלֵךְ אֲבִיו וְטַבָּח וְמִכְרָה. What case is treated of here? In Pumbeditha such a case happened, and R.

Masechet Bava Kamma 82a

Abba: When the standard as to which are the best and which are the worst lands is taken, is it taken of those lands of his own, or of those of the public in general? According to whom is this? The reports that upon hearing this teaching, Rabbi Yosef who was blind said that he would throw a party for the sages who ruled against who says that blind people are not obligated to perform mitzvot, since he wanted to receive appropriate reward for his actions.

Tractate Bava Kama: Chapter 1

In both cases he pays only actual damages. Bava Kamma 88a-b Our discusses the story of a woman who wrote a will, giving her inheritance to her son.
