If China Builds It, Will the Arab World Come?

In both India and China there is a lively debate about corruption and exposing scandals, which seems to indicate that the boundary between political power and economic entrepreneurship is constantly shifting. While modern Uyghurs consider Islam to be part of their identity, religious observance varies between different regions. According to Heikkilä and colleagues, community members that receive adequate social support cope better with negative life events and are less likely to have depression or anxiety; so strong social support may be a protective factor that can mitigate the negative psychological consequences of migration.

If China Builds It, Will the Arab World Come?

Many Uyghurs linked the preservation of their cultural and religious identity with the language of instruction in schools and therefore preferred the Uyghur language school.
