Volume 101 Issue 4

Most French men and women didn't speak French. It might well be used in undergraduate classes as a case study for popular opinion in modern France. Cullen Building Robert Zaretsky works in the field of modern European intellectual and cultural history.

Nîmes at War: Religion, Politics, and Public Opinion in the Gard, 1938

In 1792, Joseph Rouget de Lisle, a captain in the army of revolutionary France, composed a military march. It might well be used in undergraduate classes as a case study for popular opinion in modern France. I'm Rob Zaretsky, at the University of Houston, where we're interested in the way inventive minds work.
