Chanter, bagpipes; the pipe of the bag-pipes which produces the melody; song. My blessin's upon thy sweet wee lippie! Italy was more and more ceasing to be the cynosure of scholars and poets ; and Fuller, for example, advises the traveller to avoid it, and to seek Holland, which seemed to him a; microcosm of all Europe, in learning no less than in traffic' or war. Such creation, however, does not mean that it is the effect of an irresistible act, nor that the creature is merely passive, nor that it is effected in an instant.
