Wilson is a new author to me and how I have not come across her before I have no idea and when time permits I will be look at other books by this author. Her writing is magical and flawless. In his gaze she saw helplessness, fear with a good dose of anger.

When the Morning Comes, by best

Kiersten gets points for being one of the most patient, and understanding women ever. Then you have Kiersten and she loves to party and has not really looked into relationships or children fitting into her life. It was so stinking good! Fear and excitement war in their minds.

The Hitchhiker

Sabrina jabbed the button to close the doors as soon as the last person stepped onto the already crowded elevator.

And she and Nathan together were perfection. My goodness the chemistry exploded off the page.

When Morning Comes by Arushi Raina, Paperback

Created over the span of a year and drawing on the influences of Stevie Wonder, Erykah Badu and J Dilla, When Morning Comes provides a modern, upbeat take on soul music, though still freely floating past pr genre confines.
