Caribbean Poetry Now by Stewart Brown

Lugard's Bridge 1989 frequently employs a fiercely sardonic wit in communicating his highly informed view of the shabby legacy of imperialism in Nigeria. By NAN Staff Writer News Americas, NEW YORK, NY, Tues.

12 English Words Derived from an Extinct Caribbean Language

The second edition of Brown's lively and well-received anthology offers an unparalleled selection of poetry from the region. Since the mid-1970s, Caribbean poetry has gained increasing visibility with the publication in and of several anthologies.
