Advocacy & Policy • National Art Education Association

NEA's 3 million members work at every level of education—from pre-school to university graduate programs. It is important to note that even when such efforts do not actually suppress particular types of expression, they cast a shadow of fear which leads to voluntary curtailment of expression by those who seek to avoid controversy. They teach students innumerable lessons—practice makes perfect, small differences can have large effects, collaboration leads to creativity.

Edutopia

Heleya de Barros, Olisa Enrico and James Miles presented a on strategies for improving pedagogy and connecting with learners. You can include ideas of how you plan to measure or assess the effectiveness of this approach.
