And moreover as regards Stock Exchange speculation it is unfortunately much against the interest of the stock broker to make public the failure of his clients, hence it is seldom that the wholesome warning of publicity deters others from entering the arena.

The Theory of Stock Speculation: Crump, Arthur: 9781230457659: tools.github.ffxiv.cn: Books

A few skilful Stock Exchange practitioners at the head of these concerns have, in many instances, made an excellent business out of the operations, by systematically raising the necessary capital and taking the securities off the market, which practically illustrates in broad daylight the legitimate method by which speculation may be pursued as a business, as we have already stated in Chapter III. Do I even believe this outperformance is real? This info is just one of many, many interesting items in the book.

Speculative stock, so to speak Crossword Clue Answers, Crossword Solver

The time to speculate for the fall is when growling despatches are being exchanged between nations whose prosperity has reached a zenith where nothing more is to be had, except by quarreling; when the exchanges are adversing, and there is a drain of gold setting in and the biting winds and sleet of chill October fill everybody with pessimist views; when the reports of shipwrecks and hurricanes at sea fill the minds of Oriental merchants with alarm for the safety of their galleons, and there is an uneasy general impression creeping over the public mind that it is perhaps prudent, under the circumstances, to hold less in securities, and to have a larger balance at the bank. Outsiders entering upon speculation with professional dealers in the Stock markets make two mistakes on the threshold.

Speculation Definition & Explanation

And so you invent—what you know perfectly well to be a fiction—the conception of some sort of inward divining rod which guided you right when you used it properly, and failed only because you did not attend adequately to its indications.
