

Grayson County - an illustrated history of Grayson County, Texas

Historical Publishers - Grayson County, Texas: History and Information

Description: -

- Grayson County (Tex.) -- History. Grayson County - an illustrated history of Grayson County, Texas

- Grayson County - an illustrated history of Grayson County, Texas

Notes: Bibliography: p. 182-184.

This edition was published in 1967

Filesize: 48.110 MB

Tags: #Grayson #County #An #Illustrated #History #of #Grayson #County, #Texas

Grayson County An Illustrated History of Grayson County, Texas

It was here in the summer and autumn of 1838 that the neighbors of the Choctaw Bayou and Iron Ore settlements took refuge as the occasion prompted. Hutchings Printing House, Austin, Texas, c1890, pg.

Grayson County TXGenWeb

This resulted in the establishment of trading posts at Preston Bend on the Red River, Warren, and Pilot Grove during 1836 and 1837. John Summers purchased the 100+ year old structure in 1953 and donated it to the Old Settlers Village in 1972, where it continues to stand as a landmark home of Grayson County and witness to the family that settled in the area so many years earlier.

Free Family Records for Researching Ancestry in Grayson County, TX

Sealed in plastic bag for shipping. In 1838 Warren was selected as the county seat of newly organized Fannin County. Micajah Davis invited him to his cabin.

Grayson County An Illustrated History of Grayson County, Texas

In May 1837 Daniel Montague organized a company of less than 20 men which attacked a party of Indians near Warren, for which no provocation is known, in which several Indians were killed. Added to the situation was several killings in the absence of the Montague party.

Grayson County

Those men living near enough to go and return the same day worked their farms with someone standing guard always while others worked.

Grayson County Illustrated History Texas by Landrum Graham

Cotton plantations were developed to cultivate this as the predominant commodity crop. Indian Depredations in Texas, c1890, pg. The church dissolved by 1865 due to shifts in the population after the Civil War.

Grayson County An Illustrated History of Grayson County, Texas

His land grant dated June 1839 was for 1280 acres near Iron Ore Creek where he established him two-story cabin. The county was founded in 1846 and is named after Peter Wagener Grayson, an attorney general of the Republic of Texas.

Grayson County An Illustrated History of Grayson County, Texas

After the establishment of Peters Colony in the early 1840s, settlement near the Red River became more rapid, and Grayson County was created from Fannin County by the Texas State Legislature on March 17, 1846. Winston-Salem: Hunter Publishing Company, 1979.

Related Books

- Diary of a bad year
- Indo-Malayan species of Trigona
- Bhum cañ' cam bhava lam'" pra dassana
- Unfamiliar Fleet street.
- Fang I-chih wan chieh kao.