

Protection of personal data used for social security purposes - recommendation no. R(86)1 adopted by the Committee of Ministers of the Council of Europe on 23 January 1986 and explanatory memorandum.

Council of Europe - Getting things done in privacy protection Part 1: Blended Methodologies and some lessons from Europe about "learning and defining by doing"

Description: -

-Protection of personal data used for social security purposes - recommendation no. R(86)1 adopted by the Committee of Ministers of the Council of Europe on 23 January 1986 and explanatory memorandum.

-Protection of personal data used for social security purposes - recommendation no. R(86)1 adopted by the Committee of Ministers of the Council of Europe on 23 January 1986 and explanatory memorandum.

Notes: Prepared by the Committee of Experts on Data Protection.
This edition was published in 1986

Filesize: 6.38 MB

Tags: #Online #discrimination #and #personal #data: #A #General #Data #Protection #Regulation #perspective

Getting things done in privacy protection Part 1: Blended Methodologies and some lessons from Europe about "learning and defining by doing"

Data, Modernisation of Convention 108: new proposals 2, 28th Plen. No exception is laid down in favour of files appertaining solely to the suppression of criminal offences. Periodically challenge them, to test their adequacy.

Dead ringers? Legal persons and the deceased in European data protection law

Now, it should be known that I hate talking about myself, much less writing about myself but given this interest I will make an exception and try, over a two-part blog, to share some experiences which have influenced me over the past quarter-century and more. Electronic processing poses security challenges far more complex than paper processing does.

EUR

Both of these mechanisms have served society well. See Comm'n COM, supra note 132, at 10.

EUR

Careful consideration was given in particular to the scope of the derogation set out in Article 9, paragraph 2, of the Data Protection Convention.

Online discrimination and personal data: A General Data Protection Regulation perspective

While Principle 2 constitutes a general principle for the collection of data by the police, Principle 5.

EUR

While some investigations within, say, managed-care organizations are of such scientific quality as to be generalizable perhaps, publishable in peer-reviewed journals , many are not. If this appears to be the scenario, an assessment must be conducted.

Recommendation No. R(87) 15 OF THE COMMITTEE OF MINISTERS TO MEMBER...

Some of those involved may legitimately be working under the supervision of a health professional; some may be bound by the terms of their employment not to reveal outside the organization personal data of which they become aware; but some may be little constrained. Unlike a regulation, an EU directive can only directly impose obligations on member states, not individuals. Data on Americans are transferred, and American-based institutions do much transferring.

Recommendation No. R(87) 15 OF THE COMMITTEE OF MINISTERS TO MEMBER...

It may be the case that the collection of certain sensitive data will be necessary for the purposes set out in Principle 2.

Related Books

- Burlesques.
- Bahth fi maṣḥūm al-tārikh wa manhajīhi
- Only child - being one, loving one, understanding one, raising one
- Good housekeeping step by step needlecraft
- Documents accompanying a message from the President of the United States, December 6, 1805. - Referr