Absorption, reflection and transmission of visible light

Express your understanding of this principle by determining which color s of light will be transmitted and the color that the paper will appear to an observer. Absorption, reflection and transmission of visible light Within the visible light range of the , there is a of colour.

Absorption, reflection and transmission of visible light

. If, for example, a ball is thrown against a wall and it comes back, one could say that it has been reflected. We observe that the same object appears different colors when viewed under different light.

Reflection and Absorption

Visible Light Reflection and Transmission Reflection and transmission of light waves occur because the frequencies of the light waves do not match the natural frequencies of vibration of the objects.

This is the reason why we are sweating more wearing a black shirt in summer. They are because light is transmitted with very little absorption.

Physics Tutorial: Light Absorption, Reflection, and Transmission

In case of refraction, the light passes through the body but changes its propagation direction.
