Funding & Programs

Tony Grampsas Youth Services Program The Tony Grampsas Youth Services TGYS Program is a statutory program providing funding to local organizations for prevention, intervention, and education programs for children, youth, and their families designed to prevent youth crime and violence, youth marijuana use, and child abuse and neglect.

National Health Interview Survey

Findings are based on a national sample of visits to the emergency departments and outpatient departments of noninstitutional general and short-stay hospitals. It is a comprehensive source of information on socioeconomic and demographic characteristics, health status and functioning, health care use and expenditures, and health insurance coverage of the entire Medicare population including the aged, disabled, and institutionalized Medicare beneficiaries. SLAITS-NSCH Centers for Disease Control and Prevention CDC The National Survey of Childrens Health SLAITS-NSCH , sponsored by the Maternal and Child Health Bureau of the Health Resources and Services Administration, examines the physical and emotional health of children ages 0-17 years of age.

ADHS

Counties contribute approximately 20 percent of the funding through local revenues.

Alaska Department of Health and Social Services

Colorado has a state-supervised and county-administered human services system. They will be carrying a laptop with the Census Bureau logo on it to conduct the survey. Most people have no difficulty with any of the questions in the NHIS.
