Guatemala, known as the Land of Eternal Spring for the temperate climate and lush foliage of its highlands, offers a wide variety of topography, from active volcanoes to black sand beaches and the cloud forest reserve of the Biotope del Quetzal.

Nonfiction Book Review: Time Among the Maya: Travels in Belize, Guatemala, and Mexico by Ronald Wright, Author Henry Holt & Company $15.95 (451p) ISBN 978

Even though it was originally copyrighted in 1989, I still think Wright's book is a sine qua non for travelers planning to visit Belize, Guatemala, or Maya Mexico. If you see the option to select Gateway Airport when you are enrolling, please do so. Excellent guide, but some dubious taxonomy.
