Jane Nelsen is the mother of Positive Discipline — the books, training and methodology based on the work of Alfred Adler, MD. With toddlers, you need to be patient and consistent, which is another way of saying you will need to express and enforce the same rules over and over and over again. At 15 years old, this book is very dated, and so some books aren't even on the library shelves anymore; but I've always managed to find something from the same author that we can try out.
