In the First Ward was the great Union Passenger Depot of the Illinois Central, Michigan Central, and Chicago Burlington and Quincy Railroads, and all the freight depots of the same roads.

The great conflagration.: Chicago: its past, present and future. Embracing a detailed narrative of the great conflagration in the north, south, and west divisions: ... Also, a condensed history of Chicago, its population, growth and great public works. And a statement of all the great fires of the world./ By James W. Sheahan and George P. Upton...

Mark Morgan, one of the earliest settlers, lived on his lands, bought of Earl Granville, three miles southeast of the village, the land reaching to the summit of New Hope Chapel Hill. Great masses of flame from each division leaped far in advance of the main columns, and kindling new fires returned to complete the work of destruction. Foote, of Mississippi, in the Senate of the United States, Dec.

Caldwell to the literature of the State will never be sufficiently appreciated, but the opportunities of instruction in the school were very limited. His scholastic privileges were limited to the primary education obtained in his boyhood in the school at Bowmanville, Canada; but natural ability, keen observation and extensive reading united with rare spiritual qualities, have richly fitted him for the exalted station that is his in the Church to-day. Thus the work of conversion went on with great rapidity, and in a short time another band of Indians in the neighborhood of Fond du Lac now Superior City, Wis.
