Even a brief examination of some of the recent issues of research-based journals such as the Sociology of Sport Journal, or the Journal of Sport Management will provide an illustration of the variety and scale of sport research that has been, and is currently being, undertaken. But, at this point, there is clearly a rather significant variation and much of it depends upon the individual office having somebody who turns out to be interested or having the expertise to take the lead and to bring the rest of the office up to speed.
