Sermons about Sixth Commandment

Enough has now been said to show that all nations and people did not believe in the immortality of man. Truth be told, there is no difference in any of these. Now we promote unity, Ephesians 4:1-6 Conclusion In closing let us bow down our heads and close our eyes and let the Holy Spirit search our hearts.

Sermon Six

After the Discourses were ended, several who had listened to them desired their publication. It also means you serve others with a smile, not with a frown. Even after his encounter with Almighty God, even though he had been obedient to clean shop at home, and even though the Holy Spirit was empowering him, Gideon still struggled with doubts.

John also says, no murderer has eternal life in him meaning that the eternal life that Christ has given is no longer in control of that individual; it is no longer abiding in him. It says that the Lord turned to him. In allowing the publication of this little volume, my only thought is to let it take its chance with other fugitive productions of the Pulpit that appeal to the Press as a means of widening the possible area rather than extending the period over which the preacher's voice may extend; and my only justification is the hope that it may here and there reach hands to which no more adequate treatment of the subject was likely to find its way.

Six Sermons By George Storrs

The mother of these children was ever watchful over their religious instruction, while the father was most studious to promote their temporal welfare. After her death his anxiety increased to be in a state of reconciliation with God, yet all his exercises were kept within his own bosom, except on one occasion to ask his mother - who was at the time confined by a fever - some indirect questions relating to God and Christ: after which he retired alone, and was overwhelmed with a sense of the love of God.
