The history of Batlow provides fascinating details of the pioneers, their lives and activities. It was better known and remarked upon than the now ubiquitous The thrill of a summer splash in 'wild' water! This was one of the best curios I ever saw, and was very much coveted by one Dr Forbes, who was then practising in Wardell, who never ceased to worry me for same, until I finally decided to give it to him, a matter I very much regretted ever since, as I should never have separated it from the plate punctuation as in original. Sketches of New South Wales : written and illustrated for the Saturday Magazine in 1836-37.

Scholars believe, and we concur, that this work is important enough to be preserved, reproduced, and made generally available to the public. Mrs Charles Meredith said: Their inherent propensities to do evil, every shape of vice and depravity seeming as familiar to them as the air they breathe... In contrast to these views, Mary Lethbridge and Thomas Reid describe the women as essentially good. The boys grow up long, and often lanky, seldom showing the strong athletic build so common at home, or, if they do, it is spoiled by round shoulders and a narrow chest, and, what puzzles me exceedingly to account for, a very large proportion of both male and female natives snuffle dreadfully ; just the same nasal twang as many Americans have. Each page is checked manually before printing. Good condition but has some water damage.
