. If you think the whole idea sounds ridiculous that's because it is.

French soldiers to face military court over letter warning of 'civil war'

They were there to intimidate French forces, but also to aid the beleaguered armies of Benito Juárez with clandestine transfers of arms and ammunition on the banks of the Rio Grande. The northern states were going through an industrial revolution and desperately needed more people to work in its factories. The great struggle against human slavery which was convulsing America was of vital interest to wage-earners who were everywhere struggling for industrial opportunity and freedom.
