The outcomes could have been the same whatever happened and your son needs to face that reality. But I can only post or drop a letter to him .

10 Things I've Taught My Son : Raising Boys To Be Good Men

Scripture paints men as they really are, hiding none of their blemishes or barbaric ways. Good luck - see how much applause you get at the TED talk you do when you discuss feminism's role in all the problems mentioned above, instead of blaming men's problems on their own choice of entertainment. They are worse than toilet paper, at least toilet paper serves a purpose! There will be absolutely no coming back at that point.
