First, continuous operational tempo over nearly two decades of war has challenged unit integrity and leader development while also eroding readiness. Of the four types of light-orientated dances, gloving in particular has evolved beyond and outside of the rave culture.

Culture of Japan

In the former case, a country intervenes militarily in a territory under its sovereignty to shore up its own legitimacy. This effect was amplified by the elimination of qualified teachers—many districts were forced to rely on selected students to educate the next generation.
