Description: Televangelism

The electronic church has carried these entrepreneurial trends even further. The logical conclusion to this line of thought is the incessant appeal for money to retire debts, maintain operations, and advance into the future.

Televangelism reconsidered : ritual in the search for human community : Alexander, Bobby Chris, 1950

With the rise of cable television, the dominance of Pentecostals in the electronic church has become even more pronounced. Television airtime is very expensive.
