Unit 1: Introduction to the Geologic Timeline & Mass Extinctions

By the ninth century, at the beginning of the reading of the Gospel, the faithful made the sign of the cross on the forehead, lips and heart, signifying that the mind is open to receive Christ's word, that it is confessed with the lips, and it is taken to the heart. The image of the Lamb of God symbolizes Christ's passion and triumph, for He is the new Passover lamb, identified as such by St. Cain was a husbandman, or farmer, and Abel a shepherd; so when they decided to offer sacrifice to God, Cain chose the fruits he had grown in his fields and Abel the firstling of his flocks.
