The Deloitte Global 2021 Millennial and Gen Z Survey

For that survey, interviews were conducted in local languages with 12,569 people in Britain, Bulgaria, Czechoslovakia, France, Germany, Hungary, Italy, Poland and Spain, as well as three republics of the Soviet Union: Lithuania, Russia and Ukraine.

Chapter 2: Social and Political Views

In some developing nations, all of these factors seem to be especially powerful.

Adaptable Minds

For every product class, the Mexican subjects were more likely to have bought something than the Hungarians. Overall, respondents with a college degree are more likely than those with less education to say humans evolved over time due to natural selection.

Survey Methods

This question was not asked as part of the 2007 Religious Landscape Study. Atheists and the religious unaffiliated are significantly less likely to prefer smaller government 38% and 35%, respectively.
