Mottoes first began to be shown with arms in the 14th and 15th centuries, but were not in general use until the 17th century.

History Fitch Family

My father had visited the Communist leaders Mao Tse-tung and Chou En-lai in 1940 when they had established a base in caves at Yenan. The research resulted in a book, devoted entirely to the English ancestors of the family. In the chapters that follow, I relate how I was encouraged to pursue my own interests, and at the same time, made very conscious of my role in society; that there were obligations to living with others, family, friends and society at large.
