International Law

International Customs are customs evolved over the centuries. The Principle of Comity One nation will defer and give effect to the laws and judicial decrees of another nation, as long as those laws and decrees are consistent with the law and public policy of the accommodating nation.

The Political And Legal Aspects Of International Marketing

This can be true even when the countries have as much in common as Canada and the United States.

Legal Aspects of Marketing and Sales

International marketing, although more prominent than ever before, is still a difficult arena for marketers to master.
