Jesus Christ

The present dangers and difficulties surprise us with such a terror that we cannot comfortably use the help of prayer out of a faith in God's power: —partly by the testimony of the scriptures. But this is not the fact.

Matthew , that it is considerably different from the of the prophet; for whereas it is said in the prophet, I took the thirty pieces, and cast them, etc. But I suppose it is rather a direction; for he speaketh by way of advice to the rich Christian or brother, which will appear more fully by a view of the words.

Leviathan by Thomas Hobbes

Will your Grace deny any one single portion of what I here say? When the verdict was pronounced, the Attorney-general moved that the prisoner might have the honour of the pillory; but sentence was deferred till the last day of the term, and in the mean time he was committed to the common gaol. In mercy look upon this nation and its people. It is not Church membership, but union with Christ that warrants the hope of salvation.

If the workman build on the right foundation and by his true rule; if he do his work truly, faithfully, and substantially, this ought to satisfy. Preachers in their relations In these verses the apostle gives a fourfold view of evangelical preachers. I have presented suffer ing as to a certain extent a substitute for virtue and holiness; but here I must make the bold assertion that, taking everything into consideration, we have more to hope for our salvation and deliverance from what we suffer than from what we do.

Whoever has attended to the effect of addresses from the pulpit must have perceived how much of their impression depends upon this quality, which gives to sentiments comparatively trite a power over the mind beyond what the most striking and original conceptions possess without it. Nothing can be more perverse than this view, which rests on the most vulgar realism.
